

Abraham Field BARRETT 1825-1877

Web page: <https://jansquire.com/tng/getperson.php?personID=1621&tree=squire>

Abraham BARRETT was born in Hobart in 1825, which was where he grew up. He sailed to Portland in 1846, aged just 21 years, married, and had seven children here. He came to Mt Gambier in South Australia in about 1861.

However, we also need to know of his father, John BARRETT, who was born in Ripley in Yorkshire (England). John was the intrepid traveller, and he came to Hobart as a free settler in 1823, on the ship 'Brixton'. John was variously described as a grocer, brick-layer and businessman. John married Hannah FIELD in Hobart soon after arriving, and a year later, Abraham was born. It seems the BARRETT family stayed in Tasmania, but young Abraham was adventurous enough that around 1840 he travelled to Portland in coastal Victoria. He must have been well educated for he is listed as an accountant in Portland, and later a merchant in Mt Gambier. He married Susan SHACKLOCK in Portland and raised seven children, before moving to Mt Gambier in the early 1860s. He is a bit unique in not moving halfway around the world to settle in South Australia. Abraham died in Mt Gambier in 1877.

Henry BARRETT b1561

Our earliest known BARRETT ancestor is Henry BARRETT, born 1561 in or near Kildwick, Yorkshire. I can find no record of this baptism, nor his marriage. I only know about him and Isabella from their children's baptism records.

Kildwick is about 30km North-West of Leeds. Henry is Anne's 10 x great grandfather. Henry married Isabella prior to 1587, and they had three children. The second was Stephan BARRETT, born in 1588. Kildwick is a rather large parish, predominantly being farmed.

Kildwick is the point marked '1' on this map. The descendants stayed more or less in this area until the availability of decent transport systems in the 1800's.

Stephan BARRETT b1588

Stephan BARRETT was born in 1588, in the village of Kildwick. He was aged 37 years when he married a much younger Matilda LAMB in 1626, in Kildwick Yorkshire. Stephan and Matilda had three children also, the eldest being Henry, born in 1627 in Silsden, some three km East of Kildwick. Despite the dissolution of the Monasteries occurring around 1538, these baptism registers were still being written in Latin, hence the different name spellings.

Henry BARRETT b1627

Henry BARRETT was born in 1627 in Silsden, Yorkshire, not far from Kildwick. He married Helena WATKINSON in 1658 in Fewston, Yorkshire. This was some twenty km to the North-west of Kildwick, and quite close to Harrogate. They had a couple of children, the oldest being Stephen, born 1661 in Harewood, Yorkshire. They are now living around ten km south of Harrogate, so still moving around but living in the area.

Stephen BARRETT b1661

Stephen BARRETT was born in 1661 in Harewood, and he seems to have spent his entire life in Harewood. He married Ann COLLETT there in 1691, and died in 1753, in Harewood, at the great age of 92 years. Stephen and Ann had nine children, but most died at an early age. Their sixth child was Abraham BARRITT, born in 1706 in Harewood. The surname spelling difference is probably due only to the scribe's skills.

Abraham BARRITT b1706

Abraham BARRITT was born in 1706 at Harewood, and he married Hannah WAITE in 1734, still in Harewood. They had eight children, and the eldest was Hugh BARRETT, born in 1735 in Harewood. Abraham was a butcher, and this occupation has carried down through several generations. Abraham died in 1783, aged 76 years.

Fig 2.

Hugh BARRETT b1735

Hugh BARRETT, also a butcher, was born in 1735 at Harewood, Yorkshire. He did not move far, and married Elizabeth NORFOLK in 1761, and died in 1809 age 74 years. They lived in the village of Harewood in Yorkshire, about 10km north of the Leeds city area, and south of Harrogate. They had seven children, and the second, Abraham BARRETT, born 1762, continued our line. He was born in the quaintly name village of Follifoot, a bit further north of Harewood.

Abraham BARRETT b1762

Abraham BARRETT was born in 1762 at Follifoot, a bit further north towards Harrogate. He married Hannah RICHMOND in Harewood in Pannal, Yorkshire, in 1789. Hugh and Hannah's third child was John BARRETT, born in 1795.

John BARRETT b1795

John BARRETT was the adventurer, although his brother William also came to Australia. John was born in 1795, at Ripley, to the north of Harrogate. He married Hannah FIELD after arriving in Hobart. We know he arrived on the 'Brixton' early in 1823, and at various times he was a grocer and brickmaker. Their first born was Abraham Field BARRETT, born 1825 in Hobart.

Abraham BARRETT b1825

Abraham Field BARRETT grew up in Hobart, but sailed to Portland in 1846, apparently the only one of his family to leave Tasmania. Six months later, he married Susan SHACKLOCK in Portland, and went on to have a family of seven children there, the fifth being Hugh Henry BARRETT. It seems Abraham was carrying on business as a merchant, and an entry was found in the local paper that Abraham was granted a confectioner's license in 1849. It is exciting that we have a photograph of the family in front of their Portland house, taken in 1859, on a glass negative. Soon after, he moved to Mount Gambier with his family, and it is noted he was appointed a Justice of the Peace (J.P.) in 1863, and regularly sat in courts of law. He died in 1877.

Fig 3.

This photo was taken in 1859 of Abraham BARRETT and his family at Portland, Victoria. It is on a glass negative, and it included a piece of paper with names and the date it was taken. This copy was taken off the negative in 1980. The house seems to have been demolished, as the address is now a reserve.

Hugh BARRETT b1856

Hugh BARRETT was born in 1856 in Portland, grew up in Mount Gambier, and married Flora BUCHANAN in 1880. They went on to have five children, the youngest being Effie Blanche BARRETT, born 1884. Hugh was a successful businessman as well, and he was a partner in the business of BARRETT and GAILLARD, general merchants. The connection was that both Hugh BARRETT and Harry GAILLARD had married BUCHANAN sisters. We have a photograph of their shop, on Commercial Street, close to Penola Road.

Fig 4.

The BARRETT and GAILLARD premises, about 1890. We think this is in Commercial Road West, looking east, with Penola Road in the near distance.

There seems to have been some disagreement between the partners, for the partnership business ceased in 1899, and the BARRETT family moved to Adelaide, opening a shoe shop in Rundle Street, just two shops East of Frome Street. The shop was demolished during the widening/creation of Frome Road in 1962. Hugh died in 1918, and on his death bed, said "I did not do it", referring to the BARRETT and GAILLARD business. We do not know what "it" was.

Effie BARRETT b1884

Effie BARRETT was born in 1884, and moved to Adelaide with Hugh and Flora BARRETT, and her siblings. She married Ernest Gordon MEINCKE in 1911. Effie is Anne SQUIRE'S maternal grandmother. This family is described in the MEINCKE (becoming LANGDON in 1915) narrative published earlier, where their story continues.
