

Honor LOWRY 1808 – 1888

Honor LOWRY's web page: <https://jansquire.com/tng/getperson.php?personID=11017&tree=squire>

Honor LOWRY was born in 1808 in Gulval, Cornwall, which was a village on the north eastern outskirts of Penzance, but is now a suburb. I cannot find much information about her, but we know she married William MORRIS in 1828 in Gulval. By the 1841 census, they had seven children, and had one more child before embarking on their journey to South Australia. Honor would have fallen pregnant on the voyage, and they had a further three children in Adelaide. They arrived in South Australia with five children, the remaining three having died prior to departure. William was a very well regarded wheel-wright and coach-builder, with workshops in the city. Honor died in 1888, in Edwardstown, and is buried at the West Terrace cemetery.

Origin of the Surname LOWRY

Irish: from Ó Labhradha, see Lavery , and compare McClory.

Scottish and English: variant of Laury or Lawrie .

Similar surnames: LOWRY, LAVERY, LOURIE, LOWREY, LOWRIE.

Francis LOWRY b c1740

Francis is known only because he is recorded on his son's baptism record. He married Jane WILLIAMS in 1757, in St Keverne in Cornwall. They had at least one child, John LOWRY, born and baptised in 1767.

John LOWRY b1767

John LOWRY was born and baptised in 1767, in St Keverne. He married Elizabeth INNES in 1807, still in St Keverne, Cornwall. They had seven children, the first being Honor LOWRY, born in 1808. There are a few possible death records for John, and I am not sure which is his.

Honor LOWRY b1808

Honor LOWRY was born in 1808, in Gulval, now a suburb of Penzance in Cornwall. She married William Laity MORRIS in 1828, in Gulval. They had eight children in Gulval, but only five lived long enough to travel to South Australia in 1847. The eldest was his father's namesake, William Laity MORRIS, whose grandson was Edwin RUNDLE, my grandfather. The family travelled to Adelaide on the ship 'Cressy', in 1847. William (senior) was a wheelwright and coach-builder, and was well regarded for his work in Adelaide.

Honor is Jan SQUIRE's great x 4 grandmother, and she married William Laity MORRIS. Their son's daughter Caroline GEORGE married William RUNDLE, my mother's maiden name.

The MORRIS surname has a narrative, and you can read it here:
