

Mary WINTER c1776 – ?

Mary WINTER's web page: <https://jansquire.com/tng/getperson.php?personID=1158&tree=squire>

Mary WINTER is another ancestor about whom I know little. She was born in 1776 in London, and is better known as the wife of John CHAMBERS. Their son came to Australia, and descendants soon moved to Adelaide, South Australia. Mary married John in 1805 at the Anglican church of St Martin-in-the-Fields, in London. They lived in Lambeth, London, and had six children. The third was John CHAMBERS, and he had married and came to Tasmania, Australia, with six children. One more was born on the way here, off the coast of South Africa, and two more were born in Tasmania.

It was John (Junior)'s seventh son Alfred Ocean CHAMBERS, who moved from Tasmania to the Victorian goldfields, before marrying and coming to Adelaide.

Origin of the Surname WINTER

English: from the Middle English (Old English) personal name Winter (Old English Wintra), originally a nickname from the word for 'winter' and perhaps still a nickname in the period of surname formation.

English: occasionally perhaps an occupational name from Middle English winter, a variant of Middle English, Anglo-Norman French vinitier, vinter 'wine merchant'.

Joseph WINTER b c1750

Joseph WINTER was born around 1750 and spent his whole life in London. He married Martha BOX in 1773, at St Clement Danes church in London. This church is a bit to the East of Covent Gardens.
